

ASSIGNMENT-ADJECTIVE

Adjectives

An adjective describes a noun or a pronoun.

Example:

happy dog

tired boy

seven girls

An adjective answers:

What kind?

Which one?

How many?

Smartech

Underline the adjective of quality from following sentences:

1. He is a clever boy.
2. He is a nice guy.
3. Japan is a developed country.
4. Sara is a beautiful girl.
5. My boss is an honest person.
6. This is a heavy box.
7. Naina has a black dog.
8. She is an intelligent girl.
9. Mumbai is a beautiful city.
10. Our principal is an old woman.
11. Dog is an honest animal.
12. The big hotel is built last year.
13. My son is wise.
14. New Delhi is a large city.

Underline the proper adjective from following sentences:

1. My teacher is British.
2. His wife is Indian.
3. How many Asian countries have you visited?
4. I have a Brazilian boss.
5. Let's go to a Chinese restaurant.
6. This is the most famous of the Buddhist temples here.
7. These traditions are inherently Christian.
8. We love Indian culture.
9. Jumbo was a famous African elephant.
10. We haven't crossed the Iranian border yet.

Underline the adjective of quantity from following sentences:

1. I took some notebooks.
2. They had enough plates.
3. Sam has little interest in drawing.
4. We spent a few rupees for watching cinema.
5. Many students were present today.
6. I have completed most of my work.
7. Baby ate the whole banana.
8. We spent a few rupees for watching cinema.
9. I took some notebooks.

10.They had enough plates.

Underline the adjective of number from following sentences:

1. The brilliant one of you can be the leader of this group.
2. Two children make a family perfect.
3. There are only nine class rooms in our school.
4. There are nine persons in a group.
5. He is first to join sports in the class.
6. He stood second in the district.
7. The fifth girl on last bench is very genius.
8. I am the third best performer in my school.
9. There is only one solution to this problem.
- 10.The first lesson is on verb.

Underline the demonstrative adjective from following sentences:

1. This pen is smoother than that pen.
2. This time I won't fail you.
3. I want those gorgeous marbles.
4. I wanted to propose you that day.
5. These shirts are white.
6. I can't forget that incident.
7. That pen is new.
8. I cannot give you money at this moment.
9. I could not manage it at that moment.
- 10.Those rascals are back in the town.

Underline the Distributive adjective from following sentences:

1. He used to call me every day.
2. She watches TV every day.
3. She combs her hair every day.
4. Each girl will get a chocolate.
5. Each of my friend went to different collages.
6. Each of them are very intelligent.
7. Neither of you are allowed in this class.
8. Neither of us can dance tonight.
9. He doesn't understand me either.
- 10.I don't trust him either.

Underline the Interrogative adjective from following sentences:

1. Which book on proofreading do you recommend?

2. Which team scored the higher in the last match?
3. Which player did get a fifty yesterday?
4. What recipe did you choose to make this dish?
5. What product did you order from there?
6. Which topics are more important for the discussion?
7. Whose pants did you wear?
8. Whose phone did you use when you talked to me?
9. Whose pen will they give us?
10. What exactly are you planning for?
11. What kind of answer is this?
12. What a beautiful flower is this?
13. Whose lunch box is this?
14. Where are all the friends have gone?
15. Whose school bag is this?

Underline the possessive adjective from following sentences:

1. Our father told us not to quarrel with anyone.
2. Your cycle has been stolen yesterday.
3. Your child is not doing well in the school.
4. The students of class seven submitted their assignment.
5. I could not understand her intentions.
6. Her thoughts are too complex.
7. My mind stops working when I think about that.
8. I cannot believe that you broke my glasses.
9. She could not identify his motives.
10. Their favorite teacher did not come yesterday.