

Verb

A verb is an action word.
What are these verbs?

nap

run

read

ride

jump

Smartech

Underline the action verb from following sentences:

1. She accepted the job offer.
2. She left in a hurry.
3. The cat sat by the window.
4. I'll play this song on my guitar.
5. He hit a home run at the last game.
6. We ate dinner then walked around the park.
7. She waited for her friend at the mall.
8. The bird sings a cheery song every morning.
9. The roof on the house leaks.
10. They bought a new house.

Underline the transitive verb from following sentences:

1. She never helps me.
2. My mom runs her own company.
3. She kept us waiting.
4. Riya likes to play football every evening.
5. Maya always ate her friend's Tiffin

Underline the Intransitive verb from following sentences:

1. His abdomen pains sometimes after running.
2. The rain fell heavily.
3. We walk in the park every morning.
4. We waited but nobody came.
5. Eagles fly high in the sky.

Underline the finite verb from following sentences:

1. You promised me the last ticket.
2. I went for a walk around the park.
3. I offered him some juice.
4. We spend a great amount of time together
5. David plays the piano.
6. My sister spoke French on holiday.
7. Paul runs to work every day.
8. Tim gave Paul a menacing look.

Underline the Non-finite verb from following sentences:

1. It is dangerous to drive on this slippery road.
2. We are ready to play now.
3. I felt it difficult to comprehend.

4. I needed a sound sleep to calm my mind.
5. It is good to know that you can cook as well.
6. We ate a lot of roasted meat.
7. I have completed the given task.
8. I like swimming.
9. Shaun gave up smoking a few years ago.
10. I respect the working disabled people.

Underline the linking verb from following sentences:

1. Shyam is excited about his promotion.
2. She appears upset about the announcement.
3. The eggs smell rotten.
4. Your plans for the wedding sound nice.
5. You look exhausted after studying all night.
6. I feel shame when someone insults me.
7. The cake smells good.
8. The flower looks beautiful.

Underline the auxiliary Verb from following sentences:

1. Alberto is writing a message to his girlfriend.
2. He is doing it for fixing a date for them.
3. Recently he has heard that a restaurant is offering a good deal for couples.
4. Instantly, he was excited and booked a table for them.
5. His girlfriend did not know anything about it.
6. She had planned it another way.
7. Now he is convincing her to go with him.
8. But she is not listening to his bluffs.
9. I am going to make a trip to South Africa.
10. I have planned it just now.

Underline the modal verb from following sentences:

1. I can speak English.
2. I could go to the cinema.
3. May I help you?
4. It might rain today.
5. I must go to the supermarket today.
6. I will stop smoking.